ABSENT FRIENDS

Wimborne Drama Club has lost two very valued friends and supporters during the last month.

THELMA DRYDEN was a life vice president and had been a member since the 1940s. Older members of our audience will remember her fine acting skills as well as the many plays she later produced for the Club. Her last appearance for us was only last year in our Thomas Hardy 150th anniversary production. Thelma was a talented artist, having trained at the Slade School of Art and was always much involved in set design painting backcloths and poster design. Thelma also designed the Club logo which you will see on the front cover of this programme and on our sweatshirts. It is nice to know that as long as the Club is in existence we will be keeping her memory alive. Her skills and support will be sadly missed by us all.

BETTIE TAPPER was a patron and long time supporter of the Club and her family business, Tappers Furnishers, lent us furniture for the sets of nearly all our productions. Bettie always attended our shows and patrons evenings and her encouragement and support was much appreciated.
