WIMBORNE DRAMA CLUB

Wimborne Drama Club was first formed in 1928 and, despite some periods of inactivity, it has continued to present plays in the area since that date.

Quiet Week End is a very popular comedy about ordinary people with a lot of fun in it and we hope you will enjoy it. We have been lucky enough to persuade Doug Treharne to produce it for us and trust that what you see will do justice to his professional ability and hard work.

Tricia Marshall and Mark Syrett are newcomers to the Club, and Cynthia Shakles, although a trained actress, has not appeared with us before in a full-length play.

We have our own premises at the old Railway Station where we meet on the last Thursday of each month. We are always glad to see new members, and, if you are interested in Acting, Stage Management, Production, Lighting, or Business Management, come along.
