CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Everybody enjoys a good thriller - particularly an Agatha Christie! Anyway that's what one of our patrons said to me the other day. I'm sure she was right and I hope you all will.

Newcomers in the cast are June Goulbourn, Tony Feltham, Hugh Brasnett, and backstage Andrew Thomas and Julie Fry.

THE CAST.

RAYMONDE GRENVILLE followed in her parents footsteps onto the amateur stage. Her first part was Scrap in 'Dear Octopus' at 12 years old with her Mum & Dad in the cast. She hasn't been away from the smell of greasepaint since! Her last part was Olwen Peel in 'Dangerous Corner'.

JOE AND MURIEL BROOKS have lived and worked in Wimborne for the last 26 years during most of which they have been connected with the drama club.

JAMES RUEGG was born in Kent in 1959 and has lived in Holt since 1965. He joined Wimborne Drama Club at the end of 1982 and this is his second stage performance the first was in 'Ten Times Table' last year. Jim is keen on most sports and plays badminton and skittles. He is a keen gardener.

JOYCE EIDMANS has nothing new to say except that being a member of Wimborne Drama Club is more relaxing --- or else her age is showing! Enjoys working with other enthusiasts in all aspects of drama. She is pleased to see the influx of younger members - but how about one or two more men?

CAROLYN WOODWARD. This is Carolyn's 8th role with Wimborne Drama Club, excluding a walk on part at the age of ten. Oh well, practice makes perfect!

SPENCER HARE joined the Drama Club in 1975 and has appeared in a number of plays, among them 'The Amorous Prawn' and 'Darling Mr. London'. Although taking a part in this current play he confesses to preferring comedies.

CHRISTINA (TINA) BARNES . Vot zere goes ze blushing bride! Now ve see zhat she ees a foreign cook. Vot vill zhey sink off next!!!

MARGARET POPE This is Margaret's third role with the club. Each one portraying a rather peculiar elderly lady. Type cast in character?? She hopes not!

TONY FELTHAM is a new member of the Drama Club. After taking several roles at school he has branched out to follow his drama interest out of school. This is his first production with the club (and hopefully not his last.)

HUGH BRASNETT. Having from his stage debut face down as the body in the Young Vic production of 'The Real Inspector Hound' at Poole Arts Centre last September got a feeling for the stage, Hugh is glad that in his first role with Wimborne Drama Club he at least has some lines to deliver before becoming a corpse.

JUNE GOULBOURN is another new member this year and arrived just at the right time to be cast in this production. June has only recently moved to Wimborne and thought this was the time to branch out and try something new!

PAUL BARNES. This is Paul's first time on stage since the age of eleven - HELP!
